

field of opportunities

What can the new Ryan Field offer the Evanston community?

$659 million

in economic impact generated by the construction

35% of subcontracting or

$208 million

for local, women- and minority-owned businesses

$12 million

in direct fees from the construction

$10 million

workforce technology upskilling program

A minimum

$2 million

in annual tax and fee revenue

$500K

for Evanston public schools from a ticket surcharge

$250K

annually to support a signature Evanston/NU event

12,000 fewer seats

than the current stadium

3,000

jobs created during construction

376

jobs supported by new stadium operations

6

concerts

One of the most accessible stadiums in college football

Fully funded with private dollars

LEED Gold Certified

Get the facts.
See the opportunities.
Visit fieldofopportunities.org

